GAGLAW RESENTED

BUSINESS MEN REPUDIATE INDORSE-MENTS GOT BY DECEIT.

KEPT WIRES HOT YESTERDAY

SALOON MEN MAY BEAR THE BUR DEN OF THE SALARY GRAB,

Indignation of Best Citizens Has Been Aroused by the Gang's Effort to Fasten Police Machine on the People-That Chapman Amendment.

The attempt of the gang to foist upon the people of Kansas City a huge political po lice machine and to take away from the people the last vestige of power to relieve themselver has excited the indignation of the representative citizens of Kansas City. The affair is further complicated by the determination to, if possible, make the sa-loonmen bear the burden of the raise by increasing the saloon license.

The fact that a slush fund had been rais ed to lebby the salary grab through the legislature was first published in The Journal Monday morning, together with the astounding effort to gag the people by taking away the right of petition in granting of saloon licenses. This last measure was given up and, as told in The Journal yesterday, the bill was finally presented to the legislature with a gag amendment which makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine of $1,000, for a municipal officer to refuse to grant any demand for money the police commissioners, as a board, may make. The bill practically follows the charter, with this exception, which has excited the indignation of all who realize its im-

It means taking one-third the revenue of the city," said Superintendent of Buildings Love, "to the utter neglect of all public improvements. If the council must apportion any sum demanded by the police board, in-stead of requiring the police board to live within the sum set aside by the council, as heretofore, then every department must suffer, and the people will find out their mistake in electing such legislators to of-

Many representative business men who had been duped into indorsing the bill on the representation that it was merely to increase the force and to raise salaries, repudlated their letters yesterday by sending vigorous telegrams to Jefferson City, protesting against such an iniquitous bill. The amendment requiring the council to honor any demands of the police board, under penalty of a $1,000 fine, is the work of Arthur Chapman, and it is this amendment which turns the police department into a gigantic machine and allows the police commissioners to run riot with the people's money. The salary list is increased $50,000 at the start, without adding a single man to the force, and the board may increase the force to the charter ratio of one patrolman to every 1,000 of population. The increase in patrolmen would amount to about sixty and there would be a proportionate increase in officers.

The following is a comparison between the salaries as fixed by the original bill and the amendment drawn up by Chapman: increase the force and to raise salaries, re man:

Original Chapman
bill. amendment
Chief $2,900 $4,000
Inspector of detectives $1,800 $2,500
Secretary of board $1,800 $2,500
Secretary to chief $1,200 $1,500
Detectives $1,800 $1,200
Operators $600 $720
In addition to the above changes the new amendment provides for the appointment of a secretary to the chief of detectives drawing a salary of $1,200 per year, and several additional, drivers, matrons and operators.

Why Isn't Charter Followed?

It is a source of amazement to many that the new law should be passed providing for the increase in saloons, when the present charter permits practically the same increases without invoking the assistance of the legislature. The friends of the bill have represented to the police force and the salaries was the principal feature of it. I salaries was the princip to the same amounts, with a few excep-tions, as are provided for in the new law." In the first bill sent to Mr. Cleary there was a clause stating that the commission-tions, as are provided for in the new law, early the state of the provided for in the new law, as a clause stating that the commission ers should recommend to the council such as amount as was necessary to maintain state of the new law, as a mount as was necessary to maintain which seeks to assert the council of the state of the new law, and the new can do: the new law, and the new law, and the new law, and the law, and the new law, and the new law, and the new law, and the law, and the new law, and the new law, and the new law, and the law, a

An inspection of the wording of the amendment shows that it was evidently drawn up by some one not familiar with That is one of the most bungling viola-That is one of the most bungling violations of legal practice that I ever saw," said a well known lawyer yesterday, "In my opinion it was not drawn up by any one who has any knowledge of the law." One of the ardent admirers and supporters of the bill is James Vincil, the secretary to the police commissioners. He has attempted to impress the members of the legislature during his frequent visits to the capital, with the idea that, he is working for the bill for the good of the force. While this may be true, Mr. Vincil has evidently not forgotten himself in the scramble for the increase in salaries. He began at a salary of $50 per month. Afterward this was increased to $1.500 per year, his present salary, and now comes the announcement that his salary is to be increased to $2.400 per year.

Saloon Men to Bear the Burden.

It was said yesterday that a member of the general assembly will introduce a bill, if the police bill becomes a law, providing for an increase of $500 in every saloon license. This will meet with strenuous opposition on the part of the saloon men, and it is not believed that such a measure will become a law.

Senator Young, while a warm co-worker in the Stephens-Gregory ranks, is opposed to many features of the police bill that are objectionable and I am not afraid to say $60." When asked for an opinion concerning the provision that compels the members of the council to vote as much That is one of the most bungling violations of legal practice that I ever saw," said a well known lawyer yesterday. "In my opinion it was not drawn up by any one who has any knowledge of the law."

One of the ardent admirers and supporters of the bill is James Vincil, the sections to the relief.

money as the commissioners may ask. Senator Young said that he had never heard of that feature of the bill. A copy was produced and the senator said:

"This is new to me. I had no idea that such an amendment would be presented and to say that it is obnoxious expresses it mildly. The whole amendment seems wrong and I am opposed to it. The language itself is faulty in the extreme."

"The bill was misrepresented to me." said Mr. W. B. Thayer, of Emery. Bird. Thayer & Co. "I was led to believe that the increasing of the police force and the sainries was the principal feature of it. I was asked to write a letter of indorse-

Mr. Max Weil, manager of "The Model" clothing store, said:

"I believe in increasing the police force and in paying them good salaries, for if any man has to work for the little he gets it's the policeman. But, I had not been to da bout all of this bill before I was asked to write letters of indorsement. I believe the mayor and the council should govern Kansas City and not outside parties. And I only indorse that portion of the bill which I have favored and no other."

Mr. A. C. Wurmser does not think it is good policy for the governor to be at the head of our city government. "He, the governor, appoints the police board," said Mr. Wurmser, "and if it is to have its way with the council, the job's up for home rule."

"I favor just that part of the bill which

Mayor Jones is determined that at least one-fourth of the revenue of the city shall not go into a fund to build up a Democratic political machine for the sole benefit of Governor Stephens without some of the stanchest supporters of that scheme being compelled to reimburse the city for the outlay, and yesterday when word was received that the Cleary bill had been ordered to engrossment in the lower house of the legislature he sent for City Counselor Middlebrook and asked him to subselor Middlebrook and the friday the school and on last Friday the school and

It is probable the council will increase saloon licenses $500 a year instead of $250. Every member of both houses, regardless of politics, is ready to do his part to save the city from the gang police measure and will go to the full extent of the law to do it.

PURE FOOD FIGHT

CRUSADE AGAINST ADULTERATION OF MILK AND BUTTER.

HAVING DESIRED EFFECT.

Butterine Fine of $50 Imposed Upon Harry Wickham by Justice Spits -Grocers, Bakers and Ment Market Proprietors Being Watched.

The crusade in behalf of pure food is eing carried on with vigor. Harry Wickham, one of the five men for whom war rants were sworn out about a month age by Butterine Inspector Blanton,on a charge fined $50 and costs by Justice Spitz yester day. Wickham was a driver for the Dold Packing Company and lived on the Kansas side of the line. Since the warrant for his arrest was issued he had studiously kept himself on that side until yesterday, wher he came voluntarily accompanied by ar officer of the company for which he worked. He pleaded guilty, and after the fine had been imposed Mr. Blanton, the inspector, asked that all but the costs be remitted. This was done.

The trial of the two restaurantkeepers charged with serving butterine without observing the proper regulations will come

Milk Is Pure Now.

Never in the history of Kansas City have he milkmen been selling purer milk than they are now, and this era of purity comenced the day after Police Judge Burnham began to impose the maximum fine or offenders. The Missouri Dairy Company was fined $500 on April 11 and on April 12 the milk inspector took three samples of milk. The analysis made by the city chemist showed these samples to contain from 3.2 to 3.6 per cent of butter fat.

ist showed these samples to contain from 3.2 to 3.6 per cent of butter fat.

On April 18, after the Pursel and Dickey dairles had been fined $500 each and their licenses forfeited, the milk inspector took six samples. The analysis of the city chemist showed these samples to contain from 3.2 to 4 per cent of butter fat.

On April 21 the milk inspector took twelve samples of milk, and the analysis of the city chemist showed these samples to contain from 3.4 to 4.8 per cent of butter fat.

These tests show very conclusively that since milk dealers have learned they must sell pure milk or go out of business they have ceased to water the milk, and people are now getting what they pay for.

Before the excessive fines were imposed it was a notable event in the health department when a sample of milk was obtained that contained more than the amount of butter fat actually made inperative by law. Now samples are obtained that even show 4 per cent of butter fat. It means that dishonest dairymen have finally been frightened into selling milk just as it comes from the cow, something that would never have occurred had not the health department persisted in its efforts to bring offenders to justice. This does not mean that the vigilance of the department is to be relaxed. The milk inspector will continue his rounds as usual and whenever a milk dealer is found who is selling milk deficient in butter fat that dealer can rest assured his business career is ended for five years at least.

A crusade against keepers of grocery stores, meat markets and bakeries which sell milk is next to be taken up. Some of these dealers buy milk and cream from dairymen and then add enough water to it to increase the bulk of their purchase at least 50 per cent. Wholesale arrests of such persons are to be made and, as a fine of $500 will be imposed in each case where the guilt is established, it is fair to presume they will not, affend again.
